

PRESS RELEASE

25 January 2023

Headpoint is very pleased to announce the promotion of Oliver Stephens to Associate Director

Oliver's promotion recognises the contribution he has made to Headpoint's delivery of key client transactions as well as to the further development of the business.

Mark Wilson, Managing Partner, Headpoint commented "Congratulations to Oliver on his well-deserved promotion. He has played an important role at Headpoint over the past two years on a range of deals and has developed real expertise in advising private company owners on their sales processes to different types of buyers, whether they be international groups, private equity investors or listed PLCs. We are looking forward to Oliver building further on his hard work and success and completing more great deals for our clients in the future."

Oliver Stephens added, "I am delighted to be working as part of the Headpoint team through this exciting period of growth for the business. I look forward to delivering more deals for Headpoint's clients over the coming year".

Oliver's promotion follows the arrival of Emmet Keating, who joined Headpoint in 2022 as Partner and Head of Technology.
